

What Makes a Mammal a Mammal

The animal is _____ or _____ – able to keep a constant body temperature no matter what the temperature of the environment.

The animal has _____, which produces milk to nurse the young.

The animal has _____ or _____ on its body, no matter how little.

The animal is a _____, or has a backbone.

The animal _____ with _____.

While most mammals give birth to live young, the _____ lay eggs.

An order of mammals that get confused with fish are the _____.

This group includes _____ and _____.

List three of your favorite mammals.
